C. J. Rotterman

William O'Keefe

being duly sworn, on his oath, says that Article III, Section I, Chapter IX, of an ordinance of the City of Leadville, being an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance for Compiling the General Ordinances of the City of Leadville," passed and approved the second day of January, A. D. 1885, has been VIOLATED, and that this affiant has good reason to believe that

C. J. Rotterman

IS GUILTY THEREOF, in this: that the said C. J. Rotterman on or about the 19th day of Feb A. D. 189 9, at the City of Leadville, in the County of Lake, and State of Colorado, did make, countenance and assist in making an improper noise, riot, disturbance and breach of the peace, by fighting, and did use loud, profane, foul, obscene and abusive language, and language calculated and tending to provoke a breach of the peace within the limits of the City of Leadville, against the peace and dignity of The People of the State of Colorado.
