ments and in advancing sanitation and morality.

Perhaps no two of the early settlers know more of the history of the county than A. W. Archibald and S. W. DeBuck. They were among the first to settle here.

A number of the early settlers have in the past twelve months since the last reunion was held, answered the summons of the Grim Reaper.

There are who had a personal acquaintance and association with Kit Carson, a few recall reminiscences of the Indian encounters and of the days of the old time gambling joint and gunman.

Some there are who have served with distinction in public office. Many are prominent today in political affairs.

A great many who are reckoned in the membership of the Early Settlers' Association are not old in years but are native sons who were born and raised here or who have resided here twenty-five years.

But it will be a big day tomorrow. It will be worth while to go to the park and mingle with the men and women whose lives have been lived in the shadow of Fisher's Peak.
