Notes:

The Wales (1887-1888), Condon (1888-1892) and Vernon (est. 1892) post offices were effectively a single community post office that moved twice after it was established.

"Heasten," sections 24 & 34, is also shown as "Heastin" and "Heaston" in other sources.

"Arthur" Ingwell, section 17, is listed as "Anthon" in the GLO database.

"Pevler" spelling, section 6, is what the Pevler family used locally. A "Peveler" and "Peavler" variations are common and are shown in the GLO database.

Thomas A "Wilson," section 24, is also shown as "Wellson" and "Willson".
